II. Business License Hearing: Consideration to Revoke the Business License for Cambridge Plaza Hotel

A. Cambridge Plaza Business License Hearing. Mayor Smith stated that the reason for this special meeting was to hear the matter of revoking the business license for the Cambridge Plaza Hotel. He asked for Assistant Administrator Boyes to present the Town's case on the matter. Assistant Administrator Boyes stated that the license had been suspended on October 3, 2012 and asked Chief Cornett to explain the events behind this decision. Chief Cornett explained that in light of the finding of several methamphetamine labs on the property, the hotel's license needed to be suspended. Chief Cornett recommended revocation of the license due to continued crime and a lack of communication from the business owners. Cambridge Plaza owner Mr. Kislaya Sinha presented his argument for why the business license should not be revoked. Mayor Pro Tem Manos stated that this Council has a responsibility to keep the community safe. Council, on motion by Mayor Pro Tem Manos, seconded by Councilmember Peters, voted unanimously to revoke the Cambridge Plaza business license.
